Down, Down & Up Again

Charlie Hearnshaw

a soundscape in five overlapping sections

- I stand on a clifftop
 Quiet, with clouds & sun
 And sparkling sea below
 I love C
 My thoughts are up & never down;
 I rise, I never fall.
- I peer over the edge; its a long way down.
 I step into oblivion,
 Fall a long, long twisting, modulating, turning fall.
- 3) I alight on a trampoline. I bounce almost to the top Then high, Halfway, A quarter, Less, less,
- 4) I am still & low in my favourite key
 Still, in time & in harmony with those around me.
 I happily play a chord if I can.

fine

5) I plod to the ladder.
Climb quietly
Rung by rung with caution crescendo

immense accelorando & ritardando

diminuendo

From C to C via many keys I regain the clifftop.

Da Capo al fine